

You're the Expert!

Congrats! You're now an Energy Expert, and people need your help with conserving energy! When you answer these, think about where energy goes, and how it can be wasted.

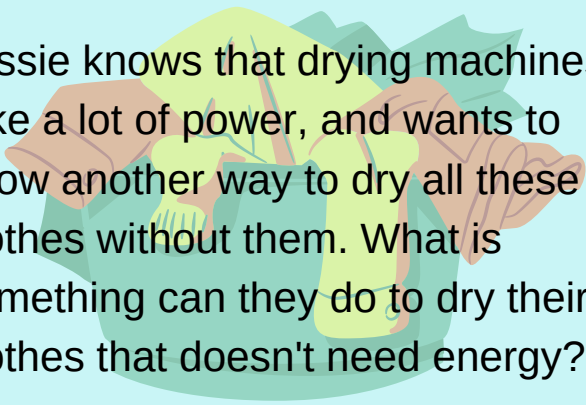

Jan just learned about saving energy, and he's not sure where to start. What are two easy ways that he can save energy?

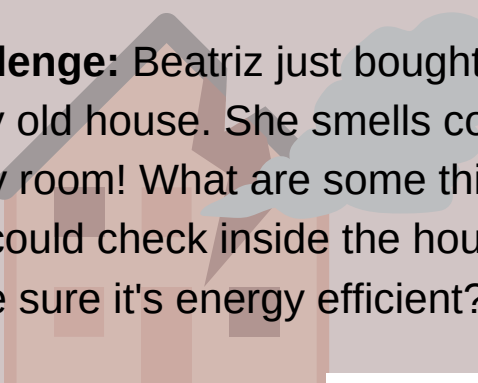

It's really hot outside, and Nina's house feels like an oven! But she knows that turning on the AC for too long can waste energy. What can Nina do to cool down that save energy? List two solutions.

Jessie knows that drying machines take a lot of power, and wants to know another way to dry all these clothes without them. What is something can they do to dry their clothes that doesn't need energy?

Challenge: Beatriz just bought a really old house. She smells coal in every room! What are some things she could check inside the house to make sure it's energy efficient?

Scan for more
Bright Ideas Series
content!